OAMPS Insurance Brokers acquires John Tannock Insurance Brokers in Queensland

Thursday, 15 January 2009

OAMPS Insurance Brokers has purchased Cairns based John Tannock Insurance Brokers. The move is part of ongoing plans by OAMPS to selectively expand its insurance broking operations in Australia and the UK.

Peter Blackmore, OAMPS Insurance Broker CEO said, "We are committed to developing a world class insurance broking business. Acquisition of selected well run businesses is a key component of our growth strategy. John Tannock Insurance Brokers is a well run business with great clients. The business is complementary to our existing Cairns operation."

Principal, John Tannock said, "I considered a range of options for my business and I believe that OAMPS was able to offer the best outcome for my clients and staff".

OAMPS is the fourth largest broker by revenue in Australia and has 28 offices employing around 800 people.
